

MRS. WILLIAM L. ROYALL AND SALLIE WATKINS.
Who led the minuet at the Charity Ball given here many years ago.

SOCIETY

TRULY the "high" of other days will be around us, and the society will find themselves a dream-land of "their day" when the Charity Ball takes place here on February 22 in the Jefferson Hotel ballroom. About twenty years ago a brilliant ball-throw was given in the Mozart Academy, under the direction of the A. P. V. A., and was a fete that is still remembered here. All of Richmond's lovely society women took part. The entire lower floor was arranged for the ball, and the minuet was led by Mrs. Willie Allen and Byrd Watkins. Mrs. William L. Royall and Sallie Watkins. Their costumes, especially made in New York, were of elaborate brocades and lace. Mrs. Philip Maxell was queen of the ball, and Mrs. Woodbridge, Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mrs. Frank Christian were among the beautiful society girls dancing.

And now another Charity Ball is to be given that will rival the ball of bygone days. The Auxiliary to the Bryan Day Nursery has the dance in charge, which includes as its members Miss Ella Buck, president; Mrs. Hiram M. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Douglas Vanderhoof, treasurer; Misses Charlotte Benkes, Zaida Branch, Jane Boulware, Isabelle Carter, Elizabeth Cooke, Dorothy Christian, Lorr Crump, Elsie Harrison, Julia Jones, Archer Jones, Nora Randolph, Mary Scarborough, Roberta Trigg, Barbara Trigg, Lucy Ford, Virginia, Virginia, Whitley, Mrs. Lewis Basher, and Mrs. Logan Golsan. The ball will be opened with the minuet, with sixteen couples of Richmond's most charming, younger set dancing. Palmer Leigh will lead with Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, formerly the beautiful Irene Langhorne, of this city.

Many prominent society people will receive, and the Charity Ball will be a picturesque ending to a brilliant winter in Richmond, where mothers and daughters will catch again the spirit of the old days in society life in Virginia.

Mr. Foote Entertains.
A very enjoyable affair of the week was that which was given on last Tuesday evening by the As We Like It Social Club at the home of Edw. P. Foote, of Chimborazo Park.

The home was most attractive, with its lovely decorations of growing plants and cut flowers, the color scheme of pink and white being observed. The women present were attired in pink satin, overlaid with white, and wore white and pink carnations.

The club enjoyed an interesting informal talk by Antonio J. Gaudin, who has just returned from a sojourn at Reno, Nev. After dancing and games of various kinds, a luncheon was served, after which little tokens filled with candy and tied with pink and white ribbons were presented to the guests. These present were Miss Hattie Lorraine Britton, with Antonio J. Gaudin; Miss Hazel Howard, with Bert Foote; Miss Elizabeth Buben, with Edw. P. Foote; Miss Edna Herndon, with John O'Grady; Miss Louise Day, with John Fletcher; Miss Martina Day, with Dr. Fred Fletcher; Miss Margaret Taylor, with Milton Wren; Miss Margaret Botta, with Robert E. Brown, Jr.; Miss Ethel Parrish, with James Rice; Miss Helen Eppes, with Wesley Lowe; Miss Dexter Parrish, with Harry Longworth; Miss Ella Gaudin, with Earl Strang; Miss Margaret Grace, with William Fletcher; Miss Nellie McGuire, with Bernard Jones; Miss Stella McNamara, with Melvin O'Grady; Miss Bertha Rice, with Louis McDonough; Miss Helen Eppes, with Leonard Quares. The chaperone were Mrs. O'Grady, Mrs. Gaudin and Mrs. Foote.
